The prevalence growth of neuropathic pain has been significant, and estimated to affect up to 3% of the population¹. Mundipharma has always aimed to improve patients' quality of life by offering relief from pain and symptoms like suffering and disability. Henceforth, Mundipharma Pharmaceuticals Pte Ltd cordially invites you to join us in this event to learn about the management of neuropathic pain; and hear from the expert on how a transdermal delivery system of lidocaine can help to alleviate your patients localized pain.
